What's new in Red Bash:

, why would you care about me at all? RED BASH, why would you care about me at all? I feel like you're fluffing me up a bit because I didn't respond within 3 days. Or at all, really. Can't say I care much for you either. But being some sort of a mother to those silly little trees is not my business. Imagine if you had kids! That's your job! But I don't have kids. I have a friend. I talk to her infrequently. She says she has 6 kids (very old! there was no child growth spurt since those kids). I have myself some sorrow, here. I completely understand. I have other friends. I talk to them even less. I still have sorrow. I also have devoted time with a husband, three close friends, and a couple of dogs. I did once go on a date, no one picked me up, and it was with a man that I simply can't shake. That's the extent of the friendships I have. If I really do have the type of grief most people I see online do, then yes, I do offer consolation. Then again, I don't yet know the level or depth of yours, and compared to my friends and husband, you are still just an acquaintance. I don't want any condolences from someone I don't know personally. I just don't want anyone in some part of me for any reason. Maybe if there's no other way I can accept this death, I will give this acquaintance some space too, after all. Can't say I care much for you either. But being some sort of a mother to those silly little trees is not my business. Imagine if you had kids! That's your job! But I don't have kids. I have a friend. I talk to her infrequently.
